

Raul N. Rodriguez

July 23, 1937 - December 16, 2022

Raul N. Rodriguez, born on July 23, 1937, passed away peacefully, surrounded by his loved ones on December 16th in Harlingen, Texas at the age of 85.

Raul was predeceased by his parents and sister. He is survived by his loving wife, Angeles, his six children, and six grandchildren.

He was a successful businessman in Mexico and moved to Harlingen in 1990, where he established himself as a Real Estate Investor. He was a proud Harlingen citizen and would often introduce himself as "Raulito from Harlingen". He enjoyed attending city functions and greeting others with a warm smile and a friendly wave. Raul also owned and operated El Campanario Mexican Restaurant in his beloved Harlingen.

Raul had a lifelong passion for traveling and enjoyed extensive travels throughout Europe, Asia, and North America. As a grateful American citizen and patriot, he took great pride in having visited all 50 states.

He never met a stranger and will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

“ My deepest condolences to the Rodriguez family fir their loss. Yes, he was a very friendly man and he never met a stranger. The way I remember him most was at his restaurant he was very friendly and a very hard worker. We loved his special plates he had on his menu they were delicious. Rest In Peace my friend.
