“ I still cant believe you are gone red. I met red in 2011 when i walked up to his office and asked him if I could buy cars from him, unlike anyone else red was very welcoming and humble. We became friends and celebrated many occasions, he touched every friend and family member wether it was on a snowboarding trip, F1 race, mexico, playing pool or anywhere.

Our heart is broken, thursdays are awful now since we used to have lunch every thursday while i was in town. You were a great support and influencer when it came to advice on business and personal matters. Your advices and recommendations has helped us grow in many different directions, you are a man of honor, trust. I pray for you every night, my deepest condolences to your family and loved ones.

It was an honor to being your friend, we will miss you a lot.

“ My name is Eli Gonzalez. I met Red approx. 10 + years ago. Red was one of a kind genuine / cool person I've ever come across in my lifetime. Yes, this loss of a true friend is hard but the good 'ol times w/ pals, laughing & having a good time will always stay w/ me. It was never a dull moment w/ Mr. Red. God sent us Red to touch our lives in so many different ways. I'd say Mr. Red did a dam good job w/ us. I will pray for you Red, your family, pals - loved ones. My deepest condolences 🕊️.

“ I lost my baby brother to cov19. It is something I can not comprehend . I always thought. I would have more time with him. He was the baby. I remember playing football with Red and all the neighborhood kids. Dino was one kid who was always there. Front yard football. I know he looked up to me when we were growing up.what he didn't know was that I looked up at him as grew up. Red seemed to have everything in order. He had a great lady by side . He loved Becky's daughters and had a great relationship with them. He was a great grandpa to Sabastian. Best of all he was a great dad to Garity. He loved his boy with all his heart. There was nothing he would not do for Little Red. My baby brother had grown up to be the kind of man his dad would be so proud of. I think Raymond would be rocking back in his boots , as we seen him do many of times. I love the way my baby brother turned out to be the one I looked up to. Love you little brother may you rest in peace . Love you always your sister lulu .

“ *Our hearts are broken over the passing of our little brother Eddie. Most people called him Red. I feel cold inside when I think of family gatherings without him. We are not complete now. So many beautiful memories of mijo. From when he was a little chubby baby with the most beautiful red hair. Everyone would comment on how cute he was and I was so proud he was ours. The man he became also makes me so proud. Reading all the comments about him helps us all in our grieving. I know how much we love him but I didn't realize we was so loved by so many others and that makes my heart happy even if it broken right now. Mijo was always saying funny things and making us laugh, I can't imagine life without him. Mijo was so genuine, when told you something you could believe it because it show on his face. He was also so generous, if ever I needed something he was there. I never had to ask. I lives are not complete but we must go on. Te quiero mucho mijito. Always in my heart. Rest in peace mijo. “ I met Red through a mutual friend. Red was super cool and real funny. He helped buy my first new car when he was at Knapp/Gilman. I'm sorry to hear about his passing. I will keep his family in my prayers. Stay safe everyone.

“ Red was our neighbor's cousin and I can still picture him as a little boy with his cute red straight bowl hair cut. He and his family would always visit their cousins the Lira's. We played outside so we would see him on the other side of the fence but still somehow became familiar with one another. His sisters were older and they would take good care of him. His family and his cousins were always such caring people and outstanding family. God, Bless his family and give them peace as they go through this difficult situation.

“ It was an honor to have known you and especially on being your friend. We had a lot in common and always looked forward to our conversations. Working along side with you as your auction representative was always a pleasure. Laughter was always something I looked forward to when we would talked. I will miss you my friend, colleague, fellow alumni and BROTHER!

“ Rest in the Lord's arms my precious baby brother. May He have you in the company of mom and dad. Know that your son (Pam), brother, sisters and Becky are devastated with the loss of your precious and beautiful life. We will forever have an emptiness in our hearts because with you you take a huge part of us. You are our baby brother and you were in our lives for 47 years, those 47 years of memories were beautiful and cherished years that will stay forever with us until one by one the Lord reunites us. I had the privilege of sending you to our Lord with blessings that were the most painful thing I have experienced in my life. I have loved you dearly all of your living days and I will forever love you my precious baby brother. My heart is aching some much. I will never forget the goodbye wave you gave me and the kiss you blew to me on Thursday, two days before you left us. I will cherish that beautiful image in my mind til I leave this world. I love you forever my most precious angel in heaven I am missing you so much. Rest In Peace with our parents. Love you so so much

“ I have so many memories with Raymond Eddie Magarity. I remember him inviting me over to his house. As we sat in his kitchen table he explained to his mom in Spanish that I was his new friend and that I had a twin brother. We were so little in elementary. Eddie was always so nice and polite to me. I can still hear his voice in Spanish Diana como estas? Greeting me with a big hug and a kiss on the forehead as we got older. No matter how much time went by it was always where we left off. He was always so kind and funny. He always put a smile on your face his energy was always happy full of love. He was like family to me... this is so hard for me. Everywhere he went his generosity was known. He was so genuine and loved life to the fullest. I will always love you my friend. My deepest condolences to the family. May God give you peace and comfort.

“ I have to many memories of my good friend Red there is simply not enough room to put them all down . From elementary racing each other (pic provided) to standing up at families special events to going on double dates, racing his 280ZX, driving around in my dads Grand Marquis, and his brothers Pontiac Bonneville to driving his dads 67 Impala to the famous 1 ton Chevy truck we used to haul hay with. There is so much more I could tell you about this guy that I'm sure you already know just by getting to know him. Oh and the bar fight we got into at the Admirals Dingy can't forget that one. We stayed up talking at David's House in his driveway about life and who we thought would get married first and what age we thought it would happen, to me going over just to talk to his mom which was like a 2nd mom to me cause she always offered to feed me and to look after each other when we went out. I could go on and on but it makes me sad to think my friend is not physically here but is with us in spirit. Love you my brother, till we see each other again say hi to your mom and dad for me.

“ Red always spoke to me about the good old days bailing hay with his dad. He shared so many great stories about his childhood it made me wish I was there with him. Sometimes he would look out at the feilds behind our dealership and sigh, saying i wish i could spend one more day bailing hay with my dad. Now everytime i see an over grown feild,i will think of Red in Heaven plowing fields together with his dad! He was a great friend and a good teacher and mentor. He was the kind of guy who gave you the shirt off his back just to make sure you were okay. I will always remember sharing some barbacoa on saturdays, and getting him an order of flour tacos de fideo con pollo. A weird combo but he loved it. Rest in piece My Friend/boss/bud RED Mcgarity.
