

Robin Rae Settles

October 2, 1957 - October 28, 2025

Robin Rae Settles (Hobbs) passed away on October 28, surrounded by those who loved her most. She was born on October 2, 1957, in Glendive, Montana. Robin spent her childhood in Anson, Texas, before moving to Harlingen as a teenager, where she graduated from Harlingen High School.

While raising her three girls, she became a paramedic, working in both Harlingen and Brownsville, before co-owning and operating Med-Check Labs. Her real passion, though, was the beach—she found great happiness walking the shoreline and collecting seashells.

Robin was best known for her fun-loving spirit, her jitterbug, her quest for adventure, her artistic creativity, and her amazing capacity for love.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Bobby Jack Settles. She is survived by her mother, Thelma Rucker; her sisters, Arlette Richardson (Steve) and Treanne Miller (Rick); her brother, Mark Hobbs; and her stepbrother, Roy Rucker (Cindy). She is also survived by her three daughters, Aranda Painter (Andrew), Michael Snyder (Nicole), and Jamie Bills (Mark); and her grandchildren, Phoenix, Danae, Caia, and Hayden Painter, and Bodie Bills.

Arrangements are under the direction of Rudy Garza Funeral Home in Harlingen, Texas.
