Left to cherish his memory are his three sisters, three brothers and many nieces and nephews and friends who enjoyed Rudy throughout his life. He also enjoyed photography and keeping up with technology and finding new recipes to share a meal with his family in friends. “ Le escribo porque deseo compartir con usted unas palabras de consuelo. Dios anhela devolverles la vida a los muertos, incluido su ser querido, pues ellos están en su memoria. (Isaías 14:14,15) Dentro de poco Dios acabará de una vez por todas con la muerte y limpiara las lágrimas de todo rostro. (Isaías 25:8)

“ I always enjoyed visiting Tio Rudy because I always learned something new whether it be about an interesting flea market find, a project he was working on, or a recipe he tried. As a little girl I never left empty handed from his home if I said I liked something he would always give it to me. The last thing he gave me was two little bracelets that he bought for my little girls. I came across one of them the other day and it brought me to tears thinking of his thoughtfulness.

Every time we would go over to his house he always greeted us with a big smile and would say, "Hey girl, what you doing?" My heart aches thinking that you won't be there the next time we go over. We all are going to miss your smile, your kind heart, and your company, but we will continue to carry your memory in our hearts. Until we meet again, Tio.

“ Rudy you are one of the sweetest persons I've ever met which is why I chose you to be Raulito's God father. I know my son will always cherish the love you had for him. Now you are walking the streets of gold and singing and praising our Lord Jesus Christ. "Till I See You Again." Love you. Aida Saldaña

Tio Rudy, I always remember you having the kindest and warmest heart and soul. My fondest childhood memories was your contagious laughter and sense of humor. I remember making you laugh with my silly dances and purposely pestering you while you were watching TV. Not once did I ever see you upset, negative, or in a bad mood. Even as a child, I knew you had a positive and loving spirit. RIP, you are in a much more beautiful place with our angels Ama and Dad. You will forever be missed and loved. Maridza
