

Rolando Solano

May 24, 1960 - May 28, 2023

Rolando Solano entered into eternal rest on Sunday, May 28, 2023. He was born on May 24, 1960 in Harlingen, TX and was the oldest of the family. A Navy veteran, he honorably served two years, ending his service and starting the next chapter of life in Hawaii. He married Wanda in 1985 and later divorced but remained in Hawaii to raise his daughter. After raising his daughter, he moved back to Harlingen to live out the rest of his days. Rolando loved learning and helping others, nurturing years of service in retail and sales; laughing and also bringing a smile to people's faces. A big heart, he lovingly cared for his sweet Brownie and many other spoiled pups.

He is preceded in death by his parents Celestino Sr. and Dolores Solano, whom he loved so much, sister Gloria, brother Rudy, and nephew Noah Matthew Vargas. He is survived by his daughter Noemi (Joy) Solano, granddaughter Valerie, dear friend Cori (Vivian) Tristan; brothers and sisters Rachel (Mike) Vargas, Rose (Patrick) Hagan, Rebecca (Robert) Silva, and Celestino Solano Jr.; nephews and nieces Micah (Kyle), Matthew (Erica), and Amaris (Jeremiah) Vargas, Alexzandria (Jesse) and Jacob (Desiree) Silva, and Nicholas and Lucinda Hagan.

A graveside service will take place on Friday, June 2, 2023 at 2:00 pm at the Rio Grande Valley State Veterans Cemetery in Mission, TX, followed by a service at 4:00 pm at The Harlingen Messianic Synagogue on 109 E Madison in Harlingen, TX. In lieu of flowers, please be as generous as you are able to The Country Vet or the Messianic Synagogue, both located in Harlingen.

“ All the stories of Hawaii and riding his bike around town. I remember Rolando from his first day at TSTC, asking him if he was Raquel's brother. That started years of friendship. Oh and he loved to talk and laugh. I'll miss you my friend. we were fellow Gemini's. Last day I got an I love you and a heart emoji on May 22 for my bday. So sweet!!! Goodbye for now.
