“ Rosanna like all the comments here of who you were that is how I will always remember you. Smiling, happy and the funniest person I've known. That's how you made everyone feel..happy and loved. The Light of Jesus Christ shined through you and you were blessed. May God give strength and peace to John and all her family.

“ Rosanna,
My heart is heavy knowing you will no longer enter the breakroom with your radiant smile asking if you received any “love notes” that morning or hear you say “We got this Miss Yvonne” as we discuss how crazy the shift will be. Your beautiful soul always lifted the spirits of those around you and will continue to do so through our memories. May you Rest In Eternal Peace.

“ My friend Chana

It breaks my heart to know your gone. Just a couple of weeks ago my husband asked me about you n I said hadn't heard from you. You were the best nurse advocate, daughter wife, sister n friend with a heart of gold. Your smile n laughter will always be remenmbered. I guess another angel was needed up in heaven. My condolences to all your family especially to your Mom and husband whom you loved so much.

Love Angie Cordero &family.

“ *Chana, I still cannot believe that you are gone. I will always remember you with a smile on your face no matter what- on good days and on bad days, you always had a smile on your face. You were a kind, genuine, loving, and funny soul that will be greatly missed. Thank you for always being so kind and helpful to everyone you met. To your family, my condolences and sending love, peace and light.

“Rosanna, sister, you were one of the best. I know your spirit and light lives on through the love you freely gave to so many people. But, my heart still breaks.

You taught me so much. Not just in nursing, but life. The way you loved your husband inspires me to be a better wife. Oh how you loved him.

It's going to be so hard going back to work and not seeing your radiant smile in “your” office. It will be in your memory and honor that I do though. Rest now, sister, rest.

“ Our parents are Compadres and so it made us Sisters! At a very young age, Rosanna was the cheerful and funny gal that made us all laugh. Her and I complained about our noses but she told me that hers was the worst one. “Mira esta naris que me dieron a mi.....esta naris de gancho!!!” We laughed so hard! Rosanna, you were beautiful inside and out. You are being missed by so many. Mom and Dad-Lela and Joaquin Garcia, as all in the family, are broken hearted over losing you. May you Rest In Peace in the loving arms of our Lord Jesus Christ you beautiful soul. 🙏😭 Thank you for you sweet sister.

“ My sister in law Rosanna was a person with a beautiful soul. She never met anyone she didn't get along with. She was a nurse and a workaholic a very caring person. She gave without ever expecting anything in return. She was loved by many and will be missed by many including myself. To me she was like my sister instead of a just another in law. We are broken at losing you. Rosanna may you now rest in the arms our Lord Jesus till we meet again sister. Love you always. Maria Rincon an family

Sweet Tia Shana, you were a ray of sunshine to all who knew you. You were such a kind, generous, warm, and happy person who always looked out for everyone else. Aurora will always cherish your letter and pictures from when you were "penpals." Thank you so much for the love and kindness you've always shown. You will be dearly missed by all of us. We love you!

Sometimes people come into our lives for only a moment but leave a lasting impression. Miss Rosanna was one of those people. I will always remember her beautiful smile and positive attitude. She may be gone from this place we call earth but heaven has definitely been blessed.

Rosanna even though we had not seen each other in a while, when we did see each other, it was like we had not missed a beat. As everyone has said, you had such a joy for life and a smile and a laugh that would light up a room. You have touched a great number of lives here on earth and you will be missed. But I know you will be watching over those you loved and who love you. May you rest in peace my sweet friend.
