

Xavier Jaramillo

October 24, 1975 - June 8, 2025

A Life of Music, Passion, and Inspiration

Xavier Jaramillo, beloved son, artist, and educator, passed away on June 8, 2025, leaving behind a legacy of music and inspiration. Born on October 24, 1975, in San Benito, TX, Xavier discovered his love for music at age 10, a passion that led him to earn a Master of Music in Vocal Performance from the University of Texas at San Antonio.

He enjoyed a successful career as a tenor, shared his talent as a voice teacher and vocal coach, worked with students across the globe. Xavier was an integral part in his family business Valley Wide Sprinklers Systems.

Xavier also wrote and produced original work, including the Spanish-language musical El Agave Rojo, which premiered in Guadalajara, Mexico, and was honored with an invitation to the Daegu International Musical Festival in South Korea.

Xavier is survived by his devoted parents, Francisco Javier Jaramillo and Maria de la Luz "Lucy" Zepeda Jaramillo; many loving cousins, Tíos, and Tías who were proud of his accomplishments and the joy he brought into their lives; and friends whom he loved as family.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Luisa Cruz Zepeda and Amado Zepeda, and paternal grandparents, Ignacio Jaramillo and Maria Luisa Martinez de Jaramillo.

Xavier's voice, spirit, and generosity will be remembered always by those fortunate enough to know him. His music lives on in every heart he touched.

Visitation will be held at Rudy Garza Funeral Home in Harlingen on Saturday, June 14, 2025 from 2:00 PM until 9:00 PM. A rosary will be recited at 5:00 PM and a prayer service will follow at 6:00 PM. All funeral services will conclude this evening.

Flowers are greatly appreciated by the family and will be received by the funeral home.

The family deeply appreciates your continued love, support, and prayers during this difficult time

“ To be loved by Xavier Jaramillo "X" is the most precious gift that life has ever given me. He is the most kind hearted person i have ever met always thinking of others before himself. His sense of humour & fun is one of the many things i love about Xavier. His lust for life is always bursting with joy & exciting new adventures. His emotional intelligence & sensitivity are lessons of peace and love. His amazing smile is as big as Texas with the most incredible laugh to go with it. His creative talents always blow my mind. At this very sad time i am thinking of Lucy & Frank the most wonderful parents of Xavier who he loves so much & Tiny his dog and all his friends and family who love him very much. Xavier will live on forever in my heart, soul and mind. His impact on my life is unforgettable. Knowing him has enriched my life. Thank you Xavier. God Bless.

“ To the Jaramillo Family and Friends,

My deepest sympathy for the loss of dear Xavier. I met Xavier 25 years ago through my nephew Mario. I remember him as an incredible, sweet, and gifted person. I always felt honored and overjoyed to have known him. We were able to visit (and party) several times over the years -- happy times and good memories. God must have needed him in Heaven to direct and lead choirs of Angels. May God comfort his Family and Friends during this difficult time. Xavier, see you on the other side someday. May you rest in Peace.
